

101 Paris, Bibliothèque nationale de France, Rés. m.Yc. 604

Paris, 1518 (nr. 53) with some notes

There is one note to the Silvae, at 1.2.24: “coniugis.”

BIBLIOGRAPHY: CGP 1102

Autopsy

102 Paris, Bibliothèque nationale de France, Yc. 7349

1598, Lyon (nr. 73) with some contemporary notes

The notes are rhetorical tituli.

BIBLIOGRAPHY: CGP 1102

Autopsy

103 Paris, Bibliothèque St. Geneviève, MS 3437

Paris 1606 (nr. 89). A composite manuscript including a printed edition of Silvae 1.1, interleaved with commentary by François Leclerc Paper, autograph; 221x175 [178x132]. III+361+III ff., foliated in a modern, red felt tip pen; the printed pages bear their own pagination in addition to foliation. Heavily annotated, with both interlinear and marginal notes and corrections, some of which are in French.

BINDING: Bound in modern leather with a tab: “François Leclerc, Mélanges de Philosophie et de Droit”; the original tab, which is preserved in the present binding, read: “Franciscus” on the front of the volume and “Le. Clerc” on the back.

a. 302r (p. 1)–305v (p. 8): a printed edition of Silvae 1.1 (ed. Paris: Steph. Preuosteau, in collegio Cameracensi, 1606), inc. P. Statii Papinii Sylv. I Lib. I. <303r, p. 3> Equus Max. Domitiani. Quae superimposita... exp. Laetus (ex -es) huic dono uideas dare thura (ex thure) nepotes. Finis.

Notes: 1.1: “Status ingens Domiciani imposita.”

b. 306r–313r: a commentary on Silvae 1.1, inc. In primam Syluam libri primi Statii argumentum. Hac silua Staius Domitiano imperatori blanditet cum equestriē statua a populo in foro... Colossus proprie dicitur statua... exp. <ad 1.1.104> veteribus vete [sic] inscriptionibus.

BIBLIOGRAPHY: C. Kohler, Catalogue des manuscrits de la Bibliothèque Sainte-Geneviève, supplement (Paris, 1913), 21–22

Autopsy

Rodez

104 Rodez, Bibliothèque municipale, ms. 11

Paris, 1602. A printed edition of Seneca’s letters ad Lucilium (printed in Paris, 1602); notes on Seneca in Latin by “Marchant”; Propempticum ad Crispinum, ex Statii Sylvarum libro V [Silv. 5.2] (nr. 85) with manuscript commentary, dated 1608; Horace, Satires with manuscript commentary, dated 1608; and Annotationes datae a domino Marchant in primum Herennii librum, dated 1609

Paper, written in France, possibly by Marchant; 223x171; I+111 ff.

a. 21r–26v: a printed edition of Silv. 5.2